Hook and Ladder Company, No. 2, Elects Officers—Funeral of Andrew Morrow—Columbus Day at the Schools.

At the annual business meeting on Monday evening, a large part of the members of Greenville Hook and Ladder company, No. 2, turned out and elected the following officers for the year to come: Foreman, William S. Murray; first assistant, Charles Dwyer; second assistant, Frank F. Prodel; secretary, Howard Spaulding; treasurer, John W. Hill; steward, William H. Gordon.

In electing Foreman Murray for his fourth consecutive term, the company gives emphatic expression of their appreciation of his qualities as a leader. The reports read at the meeting showed the society in an excellent condition as to membership and finances, and their 21st year the Hooks did fair to measure up to the high standard of the past. The efficiency of all the officers was rewarded by their re-election.

Columbus Day in the Schools.

At St. Mary's parochial school today there will be no session in observance of the new holiday, Columbus day. In the different rooms of the school Monday afternoon, the Sisters in charge gave brief talks on Columbus, and the pupils gave essays, making a programme of an interesting character.

In the grammar school there is to be one session today.

WEDDING.

Bounanno-Pedace.

In St. Mary's church, Sunday morning at 11:45 o'clock, Eugene Bounanno and Miss Fortunata Pedace, both of this city, were married by Rev. A. Keefe. The best man was G. L. Lion of this city, and the bridesmaid, Miss Annie Dellacosa of Occum. The bride wore white silk with tulle veil carried up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. Her maid wore a white dress with blue and white carried tulle roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bounanno held a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bounanno, 13 North Thames street, Oct. 11, from 2 to 4 p. m.

The groom is a well-known shoemaker on West Main street; his bride is an agreeable and popular young woman, and they start off in married life with bright prospects.

FUNERAL.

Andrew Morrow.

The funeral of Andrew Morrow was held from his late home, No. 28 Duffey street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, many relatives and friends being present at the services. Rev. C. T. Potter officiated and spoke of the fine character of the deceased. The bearers were two brothers, James Morrow of Union Hill, N. J., and Richard B. Morrow of this city, and two nephews, Samuel Morrow of Greenville and Hugh Morrow of New York.

There was a wealth of beautiful flowers. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery, where a committal service was read by Rev. Mr. Potter. Undertaker Gray was in charge of the arrangements.

Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. James Morrow of Union Hill, N. J., and Mrs. Mary Morrow of Millville, N. J., and son, Hugh Morrow of New York.

Rehearsing for Mock Trial.

Twice a week rehearsals are being held by members of St. Andrew's parish of a one-act comedy, entitled the mock trial, to be presented some time next month. The production, which is said to be rich in local hits and incidents, is fresh from the pen of a native playwright, John W. McKinley. There are ten or twelve in the cast, besides the jury.

EVANGELISTS STOUGH PRAYER
Preaches on Its Efficacy and Usefulness to Large Gathering at Armory—Cottage Prayer Meeting Announced—Afternoon Services Start Today.

An unswerving belief in prayer of the old-fashioned prevailing kind was the keynote of the union evangelistic service at the armory, Monday night, the second in the campaign that has been started under the leadership of Dr. Henry W. Stough. The evangelist made it plain that he had no tolerance for the idea accepted in some modern circles that prayer was an extremely stimulating and exhilarating psychological exercise, and he registered his unbounded faith that it would be the prayers of the righteous that would get hold of the hand that would move this city for God.

The attendance was about half as large as on the opening night when the opening song service began with the chorus under the leadership of H. Langston. A number of hymns were sung in the half-hour before 8 o'clock and prayer was offered by Rev. G. H. Ewing of the First Congregational church.

Dr. Stough asked those attending the meetings to arrange to get there for the service, if possible, as he told his congregation that he should always aim to let them out by nine o'clock. He also announced the afternoon service, which will be held at the Central Baptist church, and put forth a special reminder to the men to attend the service in the armory next Sunday, when he would speak on "Winds and Whirlwinds. Speaking in appreciation of the attitude of the press toward the campaign, Dr. Stough suggested that the people might extend the usefulness of the meetings by sending the newspapers to their friends.

Rev. P. C. Wright, chairman of the cottage prayer meetings, which are to be held for 30 minutes, beginning at 8 o'clock, Monday night, announced the following list of places for Tuesday morning; and urged attendance from all in these neighborhoods: Mrs. F. A. Mitchell, 37 Otis street; Rev. P. C. Wright, 25 Slater avenue; Mrs. Worcester, 29 Asylum street; Mrs. May, 25 Main street; Mrs. Silcox, 44 Alice street; Edward Purvis, Sunnyside heights; Mrs. White, East Main street; Mrs. James Hixcox, 15 Main street; Mrs. F. E. Boyens, 47 Hamilton avenue. Rev. W. T. Thayer, 219 West Main street; Mrs. Greene, Prospect street; Rev. G. H. Ewing, 100 West Main street; Mrs. R. P. Rose, West Town street.

These cottage prayer meetings were declared to be a strategic element of the campaign, and it is expected to have one hundred arranged for as soon as possible.

While the collection was taken the chorists sang a hymn, and before Dr. Stough spoke he called upon Henry Herring for the solo, Jesus Whispers. A choir of about 15 voices joined in effective emphasis upon the significant lines of the hymn.

For his text, Dr. Stough took James v. 16, The supplication of a righteous

Lucy Y. Main Alleges Her Husband is Guilty of Intolerable Cruelty and Adultery—Married Last April.

Deputy Sheriff H. E. Draper has attached the bank account here and the farm of Morris E. Main in a suit brought by his wife, Lucy Y. Main, Main, for a divorce. They were married April 26, 1909, and she alleges her husband is guilty of intolerable cruelty and adultery. She seeks alimony to the amount of $10,000 and asks to have her name changed to Lucy Yerrington. As told by her, the story is that she also brought suit against him for $2,500 for assault and battery.

FIVE GENERATIONS.

Celebrate Ninety-eighth Birthday of Mrs. Mary Isaacs of New Haven.

Surrounded by the children of five generations, Mrs. Mary Isaacs celebrated her ninety-eighth birthday on Wednesday evening at her home, at 74 York street, New Haven. There were five generations present. Representing the last generation there was not alone one person but three. The youngest celebrated the sixth week of his birth, Wednesday, with his great-grandmother.

The Isaacs family tree is large indeed, there being seventy-four children from the oldest generations down to the present. Almost sixty of that number attended Wednesday night's celebration.

Mrs. Isaacs is perfectly healthy and as every indication of being able to celebrate her ninety-ninth birthday.

Interesting Experiences of Lars Hansen in Nicaragua—Accident to Teacher of Wauwous Hill School.

Friends of Lars Hansen, who recently had been in Nicaragua, have received some interesting letters from him of late. Among other things he mentions cutting over two hundred bunches of bananas, a slow process, the path having to be cut, then the fruit loaded on pack mules down to the Epinaco river, then shipped to New Orleans. The plantations are nearly all of rubber trees. A hurricane swept over them a year ago and did great damage. The rubber trees that were not killed are covered with underbrush and vines so that it is hard to get at them.

Mr. Larsen said that the big palms, flowers and birds are beautiful to look at, but the flowers have no scent and for the birds do not sing. He is building a new house, which is easily done; four poles in the ground, a few rafters, some palm leaves, and the house is built.

Various Interests.

John Luther of Springfield, Mass., was at his home on Town street over Sunday.

October devotions were held at Sacred Heart Church at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazard Tucker of Taftville visited their daughter, Mrs. Adelbert Gear of the Scotland road, during the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Erle Mitchell and family of Gardner Lake were Sunday guests of Mr. Mitchell's sister, Mrs. Frank Skinner of the Scotland road.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griswold of Plain Hill entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Gear, also Howard Kinsley and Fred Lyman of Norwich.

Mrs. Ida Johnson and Mrs. Hall of Montville have been spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Edna Gear of the Scotland road; Mrs. Mollie Gardner of Taftville was also a Sunday guest there.

Released Prisoners Have Joy Ride.

William Butterfield and Edward Dwyer of Torrington, who were released from the county jail Tuesday, after serving terms for crimes, took the wagon of Jurymen William Gibbs without the owner's permission and drove away. On the outskirts of the town the horses ran away and the vehicle was smashed. They were brought into court on a bench warrant and charged with taking a team without the owner's permission. Both entered pleas of guilty. Butterfield was sentenced to three years in jail and Dwyer was given two months in jail.

SUFFERING ENDED

The Lee & Osgood Co. Sells the Remedy that Cured Stomach Trouble of 14 Years

And best of all The Lee & Osgood Co. guarantees it to cure you or your money back. Read this:

"I have been a great sufferer for 14 years, everything I ate gave me heartburns. I have never been able to get anything that would give me any relief until a friend of mine insisted on my taking Mi-o-na. I took a 50 cent box and I believe I am entirely well. F. M. Bryant, Newman, Ga. June 5th. Mi-o-na is not a nostrum; it is the prescription of a reliable physician who is a specialist in stomach diseases. One clever woman calls Mi-o-na the Sunshine Prescription, because it changes her from a miserable, nervous dyspeptic into a bright, healthy, happy woman in a few weeks.

These little Mi-o-na tablets are surely wonder workers. They absolutely cure indigestion whether acute or chronic.

They stop belching, gas in stomach, and heartburns, in a few minutes. Distress
